NDA showcases employment gains, poverty reduction under Modi govt

PM Skips Speech At Parliamentary Party Meet But Meets Nitish

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

PM Modi with Rajya Sabha MP and former Bihar CM Nitish Kumar during a meeting at Parliament House, Tuesday

New Delhi: At an NDA parliamentary party meeting on Tuesday, govt representatives emphasised the big boost to employment generation and economic growth under PM Narendra Modi's leadership compared to the preceding UPA era, with India's "transformative journey" in sports also being highlighted.

Modi and home minister Amit Shah were among those who attended the meeting, though the PM did not speak at the weekly gathering of ruling alliance MPs.

A light-hearted conversation between Modi and BJP president Nitin Nabin during the closed-door meeting sparked talk in NDA circles, as many MPs interpreted it as the PM putting the Rajya Sabha member from Bihar at ease a day after BJP suffered a shock defeat in his pocket borough of Bankipur, which he had vacated after his election to Parliament.

Modi later also met former Bihar CM Nitish Kumar, who was accompanied by his JD(U) colleagues Lalan Singh and Sanjay Jha, in his office in Parliament.

Sources said Mansukh Mandaviya, the minister in charge of labour and employment, besides youth affairs and sports, made a presentation at the NDA meeting to highlight the rapid strides India has made in these fields since the alliance formed the govt in 2014.

Compared to 2.9 crore additional jobs created during UPA's 10-year tenure, the figure under NDA govt (till 2023-24) stood at 17.1 crore, clocking overall growth of 36% as against 7% in the preceding decade, they added, citing the presentation.

India's unemployment rate also compares favourably to the global average, it said. The presentation was part of govt's efforts to assure NDA MPs given that opposition parties have often targeted it over the alleged lack of employment opportunities.

While 25 crore Indians have come out of poverty, the Gini Coefficient, a global metric for income inequality, has improved to 25.5 in 2022-23 from 28.8 in 2011-12.

In sports, a host of initiatives, including Khelo India scheme, have lifted India's performance in global events, including Olympics, Asiad and Commonwealth Games. India's haul of 39 medals, including 13 gold, in the recent edition of CWG came in for special mention.

Datia bypoll: BJP forms 2-member panel to review loss amid sabotage allegations

Bhopal: BJP Tuesday constituted a two-member committee to review the reasons behind its defeat in the Datia assembly bypoll in Madhya Pradesh, a day after Congress retained the seat, amid claims of sabotage by the ruling party candidate.

Chief Minister Mohan Yadav held a meeting with senior party leaders at his residence during the day, following which a panel was formed. BJP, in a statement, said that the party's state general secretary Gaurav Randive and senior leader Ambaram Karada have been appointed as members of the committee. The panel will discuss with responsible officials and senior leaders involved in the election, analyse the reasons for the defeat, and submit a report of its findings to state president Hemant Khandelwal.

Congress Monday retained the Datia assembly seat, with Ghanshyam Singh trouncing BJP's Ashutosh Tiwari by 6,016 votes. The BJP had fielded Tiwari in this by-election, replacing six-time MLA Narottam Mishra. The bypoll was held amid heartburn among Mishra's supporters after the party denied him a ticket and picked Tiwari. PTI

Cong dubs dy CM Sunetra 'gungi gudiya', stirs row

Mumbai: A political storm broke out in Maharashtra after Congress Tuesday branded deputy CM Sunetra Pawar a "gungi gudiya" (mute doll), drawing a sharp and vocal rebuttal from her party NCP and other constituents of the ruling alliance.

Angered over the characterization of its president, NCP asked if the Congress now endorses the infamous slur once hurled at its own leader and former Prime Minister Indira Gandhi in the 1960s. Governing allies Shiv Sena and BJP also lashed out at Congress, but Maharashtra Congress president Harshwardhan Sapkal defended the use of the term by his party. PTI

CID searches Abhishek's former aide's residence

A day after the Calcutta HC rejected the anticipatory bail of Sumit Roy, former aide to Trinamool Congress MP Abhishek Banerjee, in the alleged Salboni govt land fraud case, a CID team Tuesday reached his city residence with an arrest warrant to trace him in connection with the investigation, a senior official said.
