Cape Verde's Vozinha to join Chile club Colo Colo

One of the breakout stars at the World Cup has a new home in Chile – Cape Verde goalkeeper Vozinha has signed a contract with Colo Colo, the South American country's biggest soccer team. The 40-year-old Vozinha became one of the most talked-about players at the World Cup with a string of remarkable saves against top teams such as eventual champion Spain and defending champion Argentina.

"Welcome. We're waiting for you," the club wrote Friday on its social media pages in a post that quickly sparked excitement not only among Colo Colo supporters but across Chile, where the national team failed this year to qualify for a third consecutive World Cup.

Anibal Mosa, president of Blanco y Negro, the company that manages the Chilean club, had confirmed shortly before that the goalkeeper, who had no contract with any team during the World Cup, will arrive in Chile soon.

"Vozinha is going to be a Colo Colo player. In the next few days, he will travel to Chile, undergo the necessary medical examinations, and then be presented here at the Estadio Monumental," Mosa told media, referring to Colo Colo's home stadium in Santiago, Chile's capital. (AP)

Atletico signs South Korea WC midfielder Lee Kang-In South Korea midfielder Lee Kang-In has agreed to join Atletico Madrid from Paris Saint-Germain, the Spanish club said Saturday. Atletico said the player would sign a contract through June 2031. The transfer fee was undisclosed but it is reportedly between 35 and 40 million euros ($39.8 million and $45.5 million). The 25-year-old Lee played all three group-stage games at the World Cup, where South Korea failed to advance after losing twice.

Born in Incheon, Lee moved to Spain when he was 10 to join Valencia's training academy and ended up playing 62 games for the club. After a stint with Mallorca, he joined PSG in 2023, scoring 16 goals in 124 appearances.

He will now play for an Atletico side that finished La Liga in fourth place and reached the Copa del Rey final last season. Lee will help fill the creative void left by Antoine Griezmann, who has left for the MLS as Atletico's all-time top scorer. (AP)

Lyonnes signs Barcelona's Salma Paralluelo

French women's champion OL Lyonnes signed Spain forward Salma Paralluelo from Barcelona on a four-year contract on Saturday. Lyon announced the signing on X.

A standout junior athlete, the 22-year-old Paralluelo scored twice for Barcelona when it routed Lyon 4-0 in the Champions League final in May, and helped Spain win the World Cup in 2023. Paralluelo is also a world champion at Under-17 and Under-20 level, and finished third in the Ballon d'Or voting in 2023 and 2024. "Wanted by Europe's top clubs, Salma Paralluelo has chosen to join the Lyon project to open a new chapter in her career and continue her development at the highest level," the French champion said. The club has won the women's Champions League a record eight times and is recruiting strongly under president Michele Kang. It has signed goal-scoring midfielder Caroline Weir from Real Madrid, goalkeeper Maria-Luisa Grohs from Bayern Munich and Sweden international Johanna Rytting Kaneryd from Chelsea. (AP)

We want to write own piece of history in WC, says hockey coach Fulton

SAUMOJYOTI S CHOUDHURY
New Delhi

Fully aware of the legacy he is chasing, Indian men's hockey team chief coach Craig Fulton is determined to break the 51-year-old medal jinx at the World Cup, and said the Harmanpreet Singh-led is eyeing to "write its own piece of history" in the upcoming showpiece.

Fulton, who guided India to their second consecutive bronze medal at the Paris Olympics, very well knows that consistency will be key if India are to win a drought ending medal at the upcoming World Cup in The Netherlands and Belgium from August 15 to 30.

Eight-time Olympic gold medallist, India boast of only three World Cup medals, the last of which — a gold — came way back in the 1975 edition in Kuala Lumpur under Ajit Pal Singh's captaincy. "1975 was the last time India won it and what's important is to get consistency in the tournament and bring that consistency into the Asian Games and we win the Asian Games as a priority as well," the 51-year-old South African told PTI.

"We are excited about the opportunity.

CWG: Rupa, Pinki shine in Lawn Bowls competition

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Glasgow

Rupa Rani Tirkey and Pinki Singh maintained India's impressive momentum in the Lawn Bowls competition at the Commonwealth Games with a third straight win, while Putul Sonowal tasted his first defeat after back-to-back victories, here on Saturday.

The Indian duo of Rupa and Pinki continued their dominant run, prevailing over Tonga 2-0 in tie-breaker of women's pairs third round match in Section B to stay on course for a berth in the semi-finals. Rupa and Pinki won the first set 5-2 against Tonga's Paris Baker and Milika Nathan. Tonga made the brighter start, taking a 1-0 lead after the opening end.

Lead Paris Baker produced an excellent opening spell, leaving India under pressure despite Rupa completing her three bowls. India responded strongly in the second end through excellent teamwork between lead Rupa and skip Pinki.

Rupa delivered a superb second bowl to help India edge ahead in the second end and level the scores at 1-1, with three ends remaining in the opening set. India maintained their dominance to claim the first set 5-2. Tonga, however staged a remarkable comeback to take the second set 6-4 and force a tiebreaker thanks to some fine work by lea Baker and skip Nathan the pair taking a 6-0 lead after three ends.

Rupa Rani and Pinki tried hard to come back but fell short. In the tie-breaker though, the Indians rose to the challenge with Rupa putting the team ahead and Pinki closing it out. Rupa and Pinki will face their Namibian counterparts in their fourth round match in Section B on Sunday. India and England both have three wins in as many games in Section B of the women's pairs sectional play but the latter are ahead on set count. Sonowal loses his third round match

Sonowal made a gritty fight but lost his men's singles third round match to Izzat Shameer Dzulkeple of Malaysia. Sonowal lost 0-2 (4-8, 8-9) to his Malaysian opponent in the Section D match that lasted around one hour at the Scottish Event Campus (SEC) Hall 3.

After losing the first, Sonowal trailed 5-9 in the second but made a remarkable recovery in the 'End 7'.
