

PLEA IN SUPREME COURT SEEKS HIS REMOVAL FROM POST

Bar Council deserves better, quit: Co-chair letter to Manan Mishra

Express News Service
Bengaluru, August 22

THE DEMAND for the resignation of Bar Council of India (BCI) Chairman Manan Kumar Mishra intensified on Saturday with a petition being moved against him in the Supreme Court and BCI Co-Chairman Y R Sadasiva Reddy writing a letter asking him to exit the post forthwith.

"The Bar of this country deserves better than what it is presently receiving from its own council," Senior Advocate Reddy wrote in his six-page letter.

"I hold no personal animosity towards you. I have served

Bar Council of India Chairman Manan Kumar Mishra

alongside you on this Council for a decade. It is precisely because I have watched this institution from within for that period that I am able to say, with a clear conscience, that it will not recover while you remain in the Chair. Standing down now, on your own accord, is the one course still open to you that would be to your credit."

Mishra came to be surrounded by controversy after he issued a directive on August 13, asking state Bar councils not to enrol students of NALSAR's (National Academy of Legal Studies and Research, University of Law, Hyderabad) 2026 batch following a campaign started by around 450 students of NALSAR opposing an invitation to C.J. Surya Kant to university convocation. Mishra withdrew the circular hours later the same day, saying the BCI had closed the proceedings after concluding that the students had "no role in any disturbance or movement".

The BCI said the direction was issued without material being placed before it, without the Council deliberating upon it, and without any resolution of Council authorising it.

A plea has been filed in the Supreme Court challenging the legality of Mishra's tenure and seeking his removal from the post. Mishra was first elected as BCI Chairman in 2012. Although he briefly demitted office in 2014, he returned in November that year and has remained in the post since then, said the plea, filed by advocate Yogamaya MG.

Police: Accused beheaded man as part of sacrifice

Sujit Bisoyi
Bhubaneswar, August 22

WHEN POLICE in Odisha's Balangir recovered a headless body from a pond earlier this week, little did they know that their search, would end barely 20 metres away.

But more than the crime, what threw the police off was the motive behind it — the case turned out to be an alleged attempt at human sacrifice carried out by the accused in a bid to get back his estranged wife. Police have arrested Satrugan Sahu, a resident of Bagada village.
