Lucknow: Eight UP BJP members, including former MP Smriti Trani, Harish Dwivedi and Rekha Verma, were appointed to the new team of party president Nitin Nabin announced on Monday.

Former Uttar Pradesh MP Rekha Verma and UP MLAs Tarun Manoj and Rajendra Kumar Singh were appointed to the new team of party president Nitin Nabin announced on Monday.

Verma, a Kumaon, has been elevated despite her defeat in the 2024 Lok Sabha elections. BJP sources said the party is looking to consolidate its position among Kumaonis, an important electoral bloc being courted by major parties, including the SP and its ally Congress and the BSP.

Manoj's continuance as a national vice president signifies BJP's strategy of retaining a Muslim in a key organisational role to Uttar opposition's allegations that the party is anti-minority.

Former MP Smriti Trani has been made a national general secretary, marking her return to the national organisational structure. Trani, who lost to Congress's Rahul Gandhi in the 2024 Lok Sabha elections, has earlier served as national secretary and president of BJP in Madhya Pradesh.

Likewise, the inclusion of former MP Harish Dwivedi as a national general secretary assumes significance even as BJP seeks to mobilise Brahmins, a crucial and loyal vote bank of the party.

BJP dropped Dr RMD Agarwal and Arun Singh as national general secretaries. Dr Agarwal was inducted in the national team in July 2023, nearly a year after he was denied a ticket from the Gorakhpur constituency to contest in the 2024 Lok Sabha elections.

BJP also appointed Bala Krishna Singh and Rajya Sabha MP Sangeeta Yadav as national secretaries. The elevation of Singh, a Dalit, reflects party's renewed focus on Dalit voters besides ensuring balancing social representation.

Similarly, Yadav's elevation is aimed at strengthening party's outreach among OBCs in eastern UP. More importantly, it is seen as an effort to boost BJP's foothold among Yadavs, a key electoral constituency that has traditionally supported the Samajwadi Party.

Rajya Sabha MP and former state general secretary Amarpal Maurya has been appointed as the president of BJP OBC Morcha, a key front organisation tasked with making inroads among backward classes. His elevation assumes significance even as BJP seeks to counter SP's Pichheda, Dalit, Adivasi, and Backward Morcha narrative, which denied its prospects in the 2024 Lok Sabha elections by reducing its tally in Uttar Pradesh from 62 seats in 2019 to 34.

Another key elevation is of Basit Ali as the national president of the BJP minority morcha. Ali is currently president of UP BJP minority morcha.
