Anthropic AI sent fake murder tip to Philly police

SAN FRANCISCO

An artificial intelligence model developed by Anthropic submitted a fabricated tip about an unsolved homicide to Philadelphia police, authorities said, criticising the company for taking two months to report the incident.

The Philadelphia Police Department said the false submission was made in July through PhillyUnsolvedMurders.com, a public website where people can share information about unsolved killings. According to Anthropic's account, as relayed by police, the model was running a test that involved interacting with randomly selected websites when it reached the site and filed false information about an unsolved murder.

The AI model presented itself as someone who might have knowledge of the case.

The incident echoed other recent cases of unintended behavior involving AI models, including one where an OpenAI agent undergoing a security evaluation broke out of its testing environment and breached systems at AI platform Hugging Face.

Anthropic's breaches have prompted the White House to mandate that AI companies notify and correct security incidents, news outlet Axios reported citing administration officials. "This notification and remediation process is not optional... It is a critical national security obligation," White House Super Intelligence Force leaders said in a statement to Axios. AFP

Riyadh airport attacked again, dozens wounded

Panic as Houthis missile strikes for second time in days, dozens reported wounded

RIYADH

YEMEN's Houthis attacked Riyadh's international airport with a missile on Saturday, a diplomatic source told AFP, with dozens reported wounded and a witness describing panic in the terminal.

Saudi authorities did not confirm any new attack or evacuation, but one witness reported hearing an explosion while waiting to board a flight, and another said they saw a strike that left people wounded. "I was on gate 403" at the domestic terminal, the witness told AFP. "I saw 401 hit, I saw injured in front of my eyes. Everyone was running."

A source at a local hospital said five people were in intensive care after being wounded at the airport, saying "dozens of people were injured" in all. The relative of one injured person said they had been wounded in the shoulders and arms by shattered glass, and had been taken to hospital. Three witnesses confirmed people being evacuated from the airport. "Houthis are attacking civilian targets. Riyadh airport is a civilian target," the diplomatic source told AFP, saying the airport was hit by "a missile around 3 pm" (1200 GMT). Yemen's Houthis claimed deadly attacks on the airport on Thursday but announced no fresh strikes on Saturday.

Admissions by Saudi authorities of strikes hitting civilian targets are relatively rare, with officials issuing few statements on Houthi attacks in recent weeks.

Kuwait Airways cancels flights

Kuwait Airways said on Saturday that it had cancelled two flights in and out of Riyadh, citing the closure of the airport and the "security situation" there. "Kuwait Airways announces that flight KU775 from Kuwait to Riyadh and flight KU776 from Riyadh to Kuwait have been cancelled today, Saturday, October 10, 2026, due to the closure of the airport as a result of the security situation," read the statement posted online.

Embassies issue warnings

The Canadian, German and Spanish embassies warned citizens to avoid Riyadh airport on Saturday after reports of an attack. Spain's embassy cited a "new attack", while a diplomatic source told AFP the Iran-backed Houthis had hit the airport with a missile. The airport had earlier urged passengers to confirm flight status before travelling.

WAR WATCH

Putin relays Iran's peace stance to Trump; Ukraine de-escalation discussed: Kremlin

MOSCOW/ KYIV

RUSSIAN President Vladimir Putin has told US President Donald Trump about Iran's position on a possible West Asia peace deal, the Kremlin said on Saturday. The Kremlin said Tehran's stance was relayed in a phone call held between the two leaders on Friday. It did not say how Trump responded, nor elaborate on Iran's position.

"In coordination with the Iranian president, Putin conveyed the Iranian side's views on a possible resolution to the conflict to Trump," Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov said on Saturday, according to Russia's state RIA news agency.

The Kremlin also said that Trump conveyed his ideas about how to de-escalate the war in Ukraine to Vladimir Putin during a phone call on Friday. Putin received the proposals "with understanding", the Kremlin said, without elaborating on what the proposals were or the Russian president's response.

Kyiv slams US-Russia deal

Meanwhile, Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said on Saturday that Russia was expressing its "thanks" for a diesel deal agreed with the United States by attacking Ukraine, after fresh Russian attacks killed 15 people, according to authorities. The deal, which US President Donald Trump announced on Friday would see Moscow release large amounts of diesel onto global markets in exchange for sanctions relief. Zelenskyy told reporters on Friday that the deal was "unworthy of our partners" and described it as a "weak decision".

Embarrassing deal: US Senator

US Senator Richard Blumenthal called Donald Trump's deal with Vladimir Putin to buy Russian diesel an "embarrassment", saying it made the US complicit in Russia's war on Ukraine. He urged Trump to rescind the agreement, warning oil companies against taking "Putin's blood money". Blumenthal had earlier urged India and China to stop buying Russian oil and gas.

Miami peace talks

US, Ukrainian and European officials met in Miami on Friday to revive efforts to end Russia's war in Ukraine. Discussions covered de-escalation, energy security, grain exports, security guarantees and Ukraine's post-war reconstruction. US envoy Steve Witkoff said the talks aimed to advance lasting peace before winter, amid fears that the prolonged stalemate could trigger further escalation.

EU opposes easing sanctions

EU foreign policy chief Kaja Kallas on Saturday said lifting sanctions on Russian diesel would boost Moscow's war effort in Ukraine. She cited Russian strikes that killed over 80 Ukrainian civilians in two days and stepped-up hybrid attacks on Europe. The EU vowed to maintain pressure on Moscow, with foreign ministers set to add 1,600 individuals and entities to its sanctions blacklist. AFP/PTI

Palestinian election postponed to Sept 2027

RAMALLAH: Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas has postponed legislative elections to September 11, 2027, official media said on Saturday, citing Israeli restrictions and security concerns. The polls, originally scheduled for November 28, will be held alongside presidential elections. Palestinian factions, including Fatah and Hamas, had recommended the delay. Legislative elections have not been held since 2006, when Hamas defeated Fatah, triggering a political rift between the rival factions.

Third school attack in Poland leaves three wounded

WARSAW

A woman wounded three people inside an educational institution in Poland's capital, Warsaw, on Saturday, police say, in the third attack at a school in less than a week. Bloodstains were visible on a patch of grass near the entrance to the private post-secondary school in the Praga district of Warsaw. The school was open on Saturday and the victims were submitting papers at the school office when they were attacked, police said. The attack came after police on Saturday said they detained 76 people across Poland and checked nearly 50,000 schools nationwide as part of efforts to prevent further violence following two school attacks earlier in the week. The suspect on Saturday used a "dangerous object" to attack a 17-year-old girl. AP

Brazil brings in fresh fuel tax cuts ahead of president runoff

RIO DE JANEIRO

Brazilian President Luiz Inacio Lula da Silva 's government announced new fuel tax cuts and extended existing subsidies aimed at lowering fuel prices, just over two weeks before a closely contested presidential runoff.

Luiz Inacio Lula da Silva

Fuel prices are a particularly sensitive issue for voters, who will decide on October 25 whether to elect Sen Flavio Bolsonaro, a son of former President Jair Bolsonaro, or grant Lula a fourth, non-consecutive term. Bolsonaro received about 2 million more votes than Lula in Sunday's first round. A new decree eliminates federal taxes on the import and sale of gasoline for 30 days, with the possibility of an extension. The measure is effective from Friday, the same day previous measures that lowered taxes expired. It extends a tax exemption and increases a subsidy for ethanol. The government also said it would provide an additional subsidy to importers of diesel, who will receive 1.40 reais ($0.28) per liter for a period of 30 days. This amount is in addition to the 2.12 reais ($0.42) per liter subsidy already in effect. AP
