

Punjab moves HC after Centre denies political clearance for Mann’s Paris visit

Kanchan Vasdev
Chandigarh, October 16

THE PUNJAB and Haryana High Court on Thursday sought the Centre’s response by Friday morning to a petition by the Punjab government challenging the Ministry of External Affairs’ (MEA) decision to deny political clearance for Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann’s proposed visit to France, allegedly without assigning any reason.

The state government had sought an urgent hearing as the delegation led by Mann was scheduled to leave on Thursday. Mann was to be accompanied by the Chief Secretary and the Chief Minister’s Principal Secretary to attend SIAL Paris 2026, an international food exhibition scheduled under from October 17 to 21, to promote Punjab’s agricultural and food-processing products in international markets.

According to the 51-page petition, the Punjab State Cooperative Supply and Marketing Federation Limited (Markfed) had been allotted a stall at the India Pavilion of the Agricultural and Processed Food Products Export Development Authority (APEDA), under the Union Ministry of Commerce and Industry.

The state government said it had written to the MEA on September 3 and 8 seeking political clearance and submitted an online application on September 9.

“The Indian Mission in France had been consulted, administrative approval and cadre clearance had been granted, and the entire expenditure is to be borne by Markfed. Despite this, the application has simply been shown as ‘DENIED’ on the portal. No reason has been given, and no opportunity was afforded to petitioner,” the plea said.

The action is “non-speaking, arbitrary and without the authority of any law,” it said.

“It amounts to unwarranted interference by the Central Government in matters falling within the executive power of the State under Article 162 of the Constitution read with Entries 14, 24, 26, 27 and 32 of List II of the Seventh Schedule, and strikes at the federal structure of the Constitution,” the plea stated.

The latest denial has reignited the dispute between the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) government in Punjab and the BJP-led Centre over foreign travel by the chief minister.

Talking to media in Delhi, Mann said, he had received an invitation from the French government to attend the food festival in Paris, where Markfed is setting up a stall to represent Punjab. “It is unfortunate that permission to travel for Punjab’s interests is not being granted, while Prime Minister Narendra Modi keeps visiting countries whose names we have hardly even heard of. A CM seeking to represent state, attract investment and create employment opportunities should be able to undertake such visits in the interest of the people,” he said.

Mann said he has now approached the high court and “hope that permission will be granted on Friday.”

ED summons Pinarayi after SC declines urgent hearing

Express News Service
Thiruvananthapuram, New Delhi, October 16

HOURS AFTER the Supreme Court declined an urgent hearing on former Kerala chief minister Pinarayi Vijayan’s plea challenging a Kerala High Court order directing the registration of an FIR against him in the alleged Cochin Minerals and Rutile Ltd (CMRL)-Exalogic bribery case, the Enforcement Directorate (ED) summoned him to appear at its Kochi zonal office on October 23.

A bench comprising CJI Surya Kant and Justice Joymalya Bagchi said it would consider constituting a bench during the Dussehra vacations or take up the matter when the court reopens on October 26.

Appearing for Vijayan, senior advocate Siddharth Luthra urged the bench to take up the plea that day, citing the risk of arrest. “The threat is because now the FIR is registered. All I am saying is, let him be protected, because that is my concern. Otherwise, an 82-year-old gentleman will be put in custody,” Luthra told the bench.

Former Keralam CM Pinarayi Vijayan had challenged High Court’s FIR order in graft case.

He contended that the single bench that passed the order in a writ petition in the nature of a public interest litigation (PIL) did not have the roster for PILs. The senior counsel added that the High Court issued the direction without hearing the ac-

SC to hear plea alleging Rahul pushed pregnant journalist

Express News Service
New Delhi, October 16

THE SUPREME Court said on Friday that it will list for hearing a plea which alleged that Leader of the Opposition in the Lok Sabha Rahul Gandhi pushed a pregnant journalist in the melee outside the registry while filing a petition.

A bench of Chief Justice of India (CJI) Surya Kant and Justice Joymalya Bagchi told senior advocate Gaurav Bhatia, who mentioned the matter, that it would be listed once the court reopens after Dussehra holidays.

The Supreme Court is on Dussehra recess for a week and will reopen on October 26.

Bhatia told the bench that he had mentioned the matter on Thursday when the bench took up petitions filed by Rahul Gandhi and others challenging the Special Intensive cused and had also refused to grant leave to appeal.

Besides Vijayan, his daughter and co-accused Veena T and son-in-law Muhammed Riyas have also approached the Supreme Court.

The developments come a day after a division bench of the Kerala High Court dismissed Vijayan’s appeals challenging a single-bench order directing the state’s Vigilance and Anti-Corruption Bureau (VACB) to register an FIR in the case without further delay. The VACB had registered an FIR against Vijayan and others on Monday. A day later, the ED registered two Enforcement case Information Reports — its equivalent of an FIR — against Vijayan and his family members under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act. In May, the ED raided several premises linked to Vijayan and allegedly recovered documents indicating a money trail.

The VACB had booked Vijayan, his daughter Veena T, son-in-law Muhammed Riyas and others under the Prevention of Corruption Act days earlier, alleging that Cochin Minerals and Rutile Limited (CMRL) paid a bribe of Rs 3.28 crore to Veena’s IT firm, Exalogic Solutions, “disguised” as consultation charges. According to investigators, the payments were made when Vijayan was chief minister.

The ED claims that Riyas helped transfer the bribe money to Dubai through Veena and others. Vijayan and his family have denied the allegations.

Last month, ED submitted a report to the state police seeking registration of a case under the Prevention of Corruption Act. On October 12, the VACB registered two FIRs in the case following a Kerala High Court order quashing the state police’s preliminary probe. In its order on Thursday, a division bench of the HC said there was “sufficient material” in the ED report to file an FIR and that a preliminary probe was not mandatory.

Jaishankar to host UAE Dy PM, Rubio in Mumbai next week, says MEA

Shubhajit Roy
New Delhi, October 16

HOURS AFTER Congress leader Rahul Gandhi questioned the government over US Secretary of State Marco Rubio’s proposed meeting with Indian officials in Mumbai next week, the Ministry of External Affairs (MEA) said on Friday that External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar will be travelling to Mumbai where he will host UAE’s Deputy PM and Foreign Minister Sheikh Abdullah bin Zayed Al Nahyan on October 19-20 and Rubio on October 20.

The discussions with Rubio are expected to cover key areas of bilateral cooperation, including “energy, trade and investment, defence, critical and emerging technologies”, said MEA’s official spokesperson Randhir Jaiswal.

Responding to questions at the weekly briefing, he said, “On 19-20 October, External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar will host in Mumbai the Deputy PM and FM of UAE Sheikh Abdullah bin Zayed Al Nahyan for an official visit. On 20 October, the External Affairs Minister will hold talks with the US Secretary of State Marco Rubio and attend the celebration of the 250th Anniversary of the Independence of the USA as the guest of honour.”

Defending the decision to host the US Secretary of State in Mumbai, he said, “It is the practice over the last decade to host foreign dignitaries from time to time in various cities of India.”

On the UAE Foreign Minister’s visit, Jaiswal said it “will be an opportunity to review all facets of bilateral cooperation under the India-UAE Comprehensive Strategic Partnership.”

“The two delegations will assess and take forward initiatives in the areas of energy, trade and investments, fintech, defence and connectivity. They will be an exchange of views on the situation in West Asia as also on global and multilateral issues.”

About Rubio’s visit, Jaiswal said, “US Secretary of State’s forthcoming visit will provide an opportunity for both sides to review India-US relations and discuss ways to further strengthen our Comprehensive Global Strategic Partnership. Discussions are expected to cover key areas of bilateral cooperation, including energy, trade and investment, defence, critical and emerging technologies, and other areas of mutual interest. The two sides will also exchange views on regional and global developments.”

“The visit will provide an opportunity to sustain the high-level engagement between the two countries and advance our shared priorities,” he said.
