

RUSSIA STOOD BY INDIA AGAINST MILITARY POWER NEXT DOOR, PEOPLE DON'T FORGET GOOD HISTORY OR BAD HISTORY: EXTERNAL AFFAIRS MINISTER

USA had Deliberately Become a Lonelier Power: Jaishankar

Dipanjn Roy Chaudhury

New Delhi: Days after he noted that the US' lack of appreciation for cross-border terror from Pakistan is impacting Indo-US ties, External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar said on Sunday that the United States had "deliberately become a lonelier power", claiming Washington's changing posture and China's rise as the two defining features of the global order.

Speaking at the Munich Security

ON COMPETITION

Jaishankar shared how competition exists beyond US & China, leading to weaponisation of any leverage

Conference edition here, Jaishankar said competition extended beyond the two powers and had led countries to weaponise whatever leverage they possessed.

"No one would disagree with the fact that the landscape today is primarily marked by a radical repositioning of the United States. A repositioning which is a posture of choice and, in a way, it has deliberately become a lonelier power," Jaishankar said. He also underscored India's ties with Russia saying Moscow has stood by New Delhi against a military power next door when the rest of the world did not back India.

Jaishankar said the two countries have historically enjoyed very good relations, and that experience continues to shape their ties. "People don't forget good history or bad history," he said, adding that the India-Russia ties today not only focus on defence, nuclear and space issues but also growing economic and energy ties.

SC CANDIDATE FROM HALDWANI & EX-TRINAMOL RAJYA SABHA MP TO CONTEST FOR UPPER HOUSE

BJP Fields Dinesh Arya from Uttarakhand, Koel Mallick from West Bengal for RS Polls

Arya is a long-time party worker turned candidate for lone seat from Uttarakhand

Our Political Bureau

New Delhi: BJP, on Sunday, announced two candidates for the upcoming Rajya Sabha elections from Uttarakhand and West Bengal.

From Uttarakhand, the party has fielded a long-time party worker Dinesh Arya for the lone Rajya

Sabha seat from the state. Arya currently has a state minister equivalent rank and is the former district president of Nainital. The reason for his candidature is that he is an SC and is from Haldwani. Haldwani is the place where Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge alleged that BJP leaders purified the stage after his meeting because he is a Dalit. With Arya as candidate, the party is trying to counter the argument presented by the Congress and set up a positive narrative among SC

'TRINAMOLISATION'

Mallick is the fourth BJP nomination, after three other TMC Rajya Sabha MPs who resigned, joined BJP, and won RS tickets voters ahead of assembly elections.

In West Bengal, the ruling party announced the name of Rukmini Mallick, alias Koel Mallick as its candidate for the 2026 Rajya Sabha biennial election. Rukmini, an actor turned Trinamool Rajya Sabha MP, had in July resigned from her MP post and met BJP Union Minister Bhupendra Yadav.

This has raised a debate in political circles, with CPI-M, Democratic Trinamool and other parties criticising BJP's move. This is the fourth nomination by BJP, after three other TMC Rajya Sabha MPs Sukhendu Sekha Ray, Prakash-chik Baraik and Susmita Dev resigned from TMC and joined BJP, winning with BJP Rajya Sabha ticket.

Sujan Chakraborty, CPI-M leader and former MLA, said this trend of TMC leaders and MPs joining BJP and fighting polls shows how there is 'Trinamoolisation' of BJP in Bengal.

BEFORE ASSEMBLY ELECTIONS

BJP is trying to counter Congress president Kharge's argument who alleged BJP leaders purified the stage after his meeting because he is a Dalit

Assam Police Arrests 31-Year-Old Bihar Man Spying For Pakistan

Bikash Singh

Guwahati: Abhishek Kumar Singh who was acting under the instructions of a Pakistan Intelligence Operative was apprehended by Assam police.

Assam police stated that acting upon a preliminary input received from Gajraj MI, Tezpur, the IGP (STF), Assam, in coordination with the SSP, Sonitpur, worked on and further developed the intelligence regarding suspected anti-national activities allegedly being carried out by Abhishek Kumar Singh under the instructions of a Pakistani Intelligence Operative (PIO).

The police stated that based on the developed intelligence, during the intervening night of 3/4

October 2026, STF, Assam conducted an operation and apprehended Singh (31yrs), originally a resident of Purba Champaran, Bihar, from a rented house at Gandhinagar, Guwahati. Preliminary investigation has revealed his alleged involvement in espionage-related activities, including passing secret information concerning security forces to the PIO.
