'Don't worry about police'

LoP Rahul Gandhi says BJP lacks courage for antics

Press Trust Of India

NEW DELHI: Congress leader Rahul Gandhi on Thursday urged people to join the opposition INDIA bloc's November 1 'Chalo Dilli' march, asking them not to worry about police and their "lathis". The leader of opposition (LoP) in the Lok Sabha asserted that the BJP "will not have the guts to try any of their antics".

Gandhi said the opposition INDIA bloc's 'Chalo Dilli' march at Ramlila Maidan is to save democracy, put an end to "vote theft" and protect the Constitution. He urged student groups, regardless of their political affiliation, to join it. In a video on X, Gandhi said it is a singular protest for the nation.

"The 'Chalo Dilli' Ramlila March is a march to save democracy, to put an end to the theft of votes, and to protect the Constitution," the LoP said. This is not a march for any single political party; it is a march for the very soul of India, he asserted.

"To all those who are fed up with Narendra Modi, Amit Shah and Gyanesh Kumar, and everyone who wishes to save democracy and defend the Constitution, I invite you all to join," Gandhi said.

Former LS speaker Meira Kumar and others during a meeting of INDIA bloc leaders, in New Delhi.

"Don't worry about the police, don't worry about lathis - the BJP will not have the guts to try any of their antics. Come march with us - we will walk together to protect the Constitution, to protect the Indian nation," he said, urging all student groups, regardless of their political affiliation, to join the march if they felt that India is under attack, they themselves are under attack, and their expression, ideas and way of thinking is under attack.

"It will be a fantastic march, and it's a march for the soul of this country," Gandhi said.

"Looking forward to seeing all of you there," he added.

Congress general secretary, organisation, K C Venugopal, also attacked the government and alleged that democracy is under "attack".

He said 13 crore names have been deleted from electoral rolls and a "massive fraud" was taking place in state after state.

"Our votes are being

HIGHLIGHT

- Protest transcends community and party lines.
- March for voting rights and democracy.

Tagging Gandhi's post, Congress' media and publicity department head Pawan Khera said whether it is refusing to provide trains in Telangana or using Delhi's traders as a political tool, the BJP's attempts to sabotage the Chalo Dilli, Ramlila Maidan March on November 1 will not succeed. The march will go ahead, he added. "This is not the protest of one community or one political party. It is a protest of the nation. A protest for the 13.30 crore Indians illegally disenfranchised through the SIR. "A protest for every Indian whose voting rights and welfare benefits continue to be under threat. A protest for the 50+ lives lost to suicide, cardiac arrests and other health complications directly linked to the SIR exercise. A protest against Mohan-Modi-Shah-Gyanesh," Khera said. He urged people to join the march if they believed that every Indian had the right to vote and snatching away this right was a grave assault on Indian democracy.

Influencer program

BENGALURU: Amazon announced that its Amazon Influencer Program has grown to over two lakh creators, doubling year-on-year. It continues to expand opportunities for creators to build scalable businesses through content-led commerce, on and off Amazon.in. Creators can now tag Amazon products in their YouTube and Pinterest content, earn commissions on qualifying purchases and help millions of shoppers across the country make better shopping decisions.

The expansion builds on Amazon's broader approach to creator-led commerce, where creators play a pivotal role across the shopping journey - from inspiration and discovery to consideration and purchase. This year, creators have enabled close to 40 million customers to shop for hundreds of millions of products on Amazon.in.

This is accelerating further with the ongoing Amazon Great Indian Festival, which continues through the festive shopping season. Talking about Amazon's Creator Programs, Nidhi Thakkar, Head of Social Commerce - Emerging Marketplaces, Amazon said, "Creators are redefining how customers discover, research and shop for products today.

Focus on public issues: JD(U)

Cong urged to introspect over performance.

NEW DELHI: The JD(U) on Thursday asked Congress leader Rahul Gandhi to rethink his party's strategy after it managed to win just one seat in the legislative council elections in four states, and also focus on public issues instead of questioning the Election Commission and the electoral system. Speaking to PTI, JD(U) national spokesperson Rajeev Ranjan Prasad said the Congress has consistently demanded elections through ballot papers, but its performance should prompt it to introspect.

"These MLC elections to 28 seats were held using ballot papers. However, if one looks at the results in these four states, the Congress could barely manage to win a seat, in Nagpur," he said. The Congress won just the Nagpur Division Graduates' constituency in Maharashtra, where its candidate Abhijit Wanjarri defeated BJP's Sudhakar Kohale.

In Karnataka, the Congress suffered a major setback as the BJP and JD(S) together won all four seats. The JD(S) wrested the Bengaluru Teachers' constituency from the ruling party, while the BJP retained the other three seats. In Bihar, the Congress, which contested five seats, drew a blank and is now left with just one member, Rajiv Kumar, elected earlier from the Begusarai local bodies constituency, in the 75-member Bihar Legislative Council.

FASTFACTS

- Congress manage to win a seat, in Nagpur.
- Cong suffered a major setback in K'taka.

Of the eight seats that went to polls in Bihar on October 23, the BJP won three, while the JD(U), the RJD and the Jan Suraaj Party secured one each. Independent candidates won the remaining two seats. Prasad said the most surprising result came from Karnataka, where the Congress is in power but the BJP and JD(S) together won all four seats.

He also said the Congress failed to win a single seat in Uttar Pradesh and with polls due in 2027, its poor performance should serve as a wake-up call for Gandhi. The Congress, in fact, did not contest in Uttar Pradesh, where it was a direct fight between the BJP and the SP.

'Border situation normal'

The current situation in the border areas of Arunachal Pradesh is normal, and the Indian armed forces are guarding the borders very well, Chief Minister Pema Khandu said on Thursday, asserting that there is â€œno matter of tensionâ€ right now. Khandu made the remarks in response to a query on the controversy over recent comments from a few quarters that confrontations with Chinese troops continue to take place in many sites along the borders in Arunachal Pradesh. Without going into details, the chief minister said, â€œThe Chinese do not consider the McMahon Line bordering Arunachal, so sometimes it happensâ€¦ Arunachal shares a very long border with Tibet-China, nearly 1,200 km. So, patrolling parties from their side sometimes cross over to our side. It's a transgression, not an intrusion.â€ â€œTransgression has happened, no doubt. But it keeps happening; it is not a new thing. Because there is no line demarcation at the border, it is not defined,â€ Khandu said, without specifying which transgression he was referring to.

accountability and ethical conduct in public service. The Walkathon witnessed enthusiastic participation by Branch Officers and a large number of railway officers and staff of Rayagada Division. Passing through Railway Colonies, Railway Establishments and public areas of Rayagada, the Walkathon spread the message of honesty, integrity, transparency and accountability among railway employees and members of the public. The initiative reaffirmed the collective commitment of railway personnel towards ethical conduct, a corruption-free work environment and strengthening public trust in Indian Railways. The programme was coordinated by Digambar Padhi, DPO/IC, who facilitated the successful organisation of the event with active participation from railway personnel. The Walkathon served as a platform to reaffirm the collective commitment of railway employees towards probity, transparency and accountability in the discharge of their official responsibilities.

Through such awareness initiatives, Rayagada Division reiterates its commitment to promoting good governance, preventing corruption and strengthening public confidence in the Railway administration. The theme "Probity for Prosperity" highlights that integrity and ethical conduct are fundamental to sustainable progress and the prosperity of the nation.

Dedicated hospitality lending programme

Press Trust Of India

Prog aims to address the specific financial needs of hotels and resorts.

MUMBAI: Axis Bank has launched a dedicated Hotel & Hospitality Programme under its Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSME) portfolio, offering customised financing solutions for eligible hotels and resorts.
