essential for ensuring ethical governance, enhancing institutional credibility and strengthening public confidence in public service.

Technical sessions and panel discussions examined vigilance clearance, identification of sensitive posts, complaint-handling policy, and the scope and boundaries of Vigilance. Experts deliberated on emerging challenges and exchanged professional insights to strengthen Vigilance systems and promote ethical conduct.

Officials from the Ministry of Mines and the CVC, along with CVOs of public sector enterprises and vigilance functionaries from various sectors, attended the meet.

for a joint survey, the exercise remains pending even after a year. The engineer had written to the tehsildar through letter No. 6280/2016 dated October 1, 2025, but no action has been taken so far.

As per the directions of the National Green Tribunal (NGT), all land adjoining the river channel, whether government-owned or privately owned, is to remain under the control of the Irrigation department. Any permanent construction on privately owned land in these areas will be treated as illegal, and the land can be used only for agricultural purposes.

The tehsildar's response to the issue could not be obtained.

Patnaik had argued that raising the national flag in a prohibited area could not automatically be treated as an offence warranting continued detention and urged the authorities to ensure the early release of the two arrested individuals, subject to due process of law. He said such developments could erode young people's faith in the judicial system.

Questioning Patnaik's political position, Mohanty said that the former chief minister had long maintained that the law would take its own course but apparently did not genuinely believe in the judicial and administrative systems.
