Diljit's Oct 30 concert gets Delhi Police go-ahead

New Delhi: Singer Diljit Dosanjh's Oct 30 concert here will go on as scheduled with Delhi Police Friday reconsidering its earlier decision and giving its nod following a meeting with organisers BookMyShow Live.

On Thursday, Delhi Police said it had denied permission for the concert at Jawaharlal Nehru Stadium on grounds of specific threat-related inputs, security concerns and law and order commitments amid the ongoing festive season.

"After meeting with the organisers and reconsideration, we have granted permission to Diljit Dosanjh's Oct 30 concert," a senior police officer said Friday, a week ahead of the concert.

In a statement earlier in the day, event organiser BookMyShow Live said the permission that had been "temporarily withheld" is now "reconsidered and issued".

"It is clarified that reports suggesting that the Diljit Dosanjh AURA India Tour concert in New Delhi on 30 Oct being cancelled are inaccurate. Permission for the event had been temporarily withheld, not cancelled, and the two should not be confused." PTI

VanDyke can stay abroad till Feb 24: Court

New Delhi: A Delhi court Friday extended till Feb 24 next year the permission granted to US national Matthew Aaron VanDyke and six Ukrainian nationals to remain outside India in the Myanmar arms training case being probed by NIA.

Special Judge Prashant Sharma passed the order while hearing applications moved by the seven foreign nationals. The proceedings were held in-camera.

The court's decision came after NIA submitted that they need more time to investigate several aspects of the case.

The court also granted liberty to VanDyke to return to the US, as he appeared in person Friday.

The other six accused appeared through video conferencing. PTI

HC tells cops not to mechanically register FIRs, arrest over posts

Bengaluru: Karnataka HC directed police not to mechanically register criminal cases or arrest people over social media posts without examining the allegations and complying with statutory safeguards. The registration of a crime should not automatically lead to arrest, the court further said, and cautioned against multiple criminal proceedings arising from the same incident or identical online posts, reports Vasantha Kumar.

Quashing criminal proceedings against a person over a social media post, Justice M Nagaprasanna issued a series of directives aimed at preventing arbitrary exercise of police powers while safeguarding freedom of expression. The court quashed the proceedings against Sandeep Kumar citing mechanical registration of multiple cases arising from the same online post and indiscriminate exercise of police powers.

The court said police must examine whether a complaint discloses the essential ingredients of the alleged offence. Merely reproducing the language of a penal provision without establishing its ingredients is insufficient. Police must also comply with section 35 of BNSS (which lays down the procedures for arrest without warrant), Justice Nagaprasanna said, citing three SC rulings.

In case of multiple complaints over the same incident or social media post, police must first ascertain whether a case was already registered, HC said in its Oct 16 order, adding that a fresh FIR should not be registered merely because the complainant is different. Where a preliminary inquiry is permissible under section 173(3) of BNSS, police must follow the prescribed statutory conditions, obtain requisite permission and adhere to timelines. Such an inquiry, however, cannot be used to avoid registering a cognisable offence, the court specified. The court directed the DGP and IGPs to circulate instructions to all jurisdictional police officers on the principles governing crime registration, freedom of expression and safeguards against unnecessary arrests.

HC nixes Bora's plea against police notice to sign peace bond

New Delhi: Delhi High Court Friday rejected a plea by All India Students' Association (AISA) president Neha Bora challenging a police notice asking her to execute a peace bond before a special executive magistrate (SEM).

"I am rejecting the writ petition at this juncture," said Justice Subramonium Prasad while pronouncing the judgement. The judge, however, said that he has passed certain directions to the SEM on providing all material to Bora in the proceedings.

"There are sufficient safeguards given, directions given to the magistrate to take care. All the material has to be furnished to her," Justice Prasad said.

The court also said that before passing any order, the SEM would consider the issue of whether the bond has to be produced at the very first instance or during the course of the enquiry. A detailed copy of the judgement is awaited.

The police notice, issued on Oct 17 under Section 126 of BNSS, asked the student leader to appear before the SEM on Oct 19 and show cause as to why she should not execute a personal bond of Rs 10,000 with one surety "for keeping peace for a period of enquiry".

During the hearing Thursday, Bora's senior counsel had argued that citizens did not need permission to hoist the national flag and there was nothing wrong in seeking regime change in a democracy.

Bora was taken into preventive detention on Oct 16 while she was on her way to join Cockroach Janta Party's 'Lehra Do Tiranga' march in Delhi's Connaught Place. She was released on Oct 17. PTI
